some asthma and brouchial affection, un luked the pullication of it, and asked der which I labored for a long time. The that nothing of the kind should ever again result of his treatment has been so truly astonishing and unmistakably beneficial, that, in justice to the Doctor, as well as for very much from Asthma. My chest was oppressed and my breathing labored. I coughed severely, expectorated a great deal, was troubled with night sweats, and had my rest frequently disturbed by difficult breathing. From the very first appli cation my symptoms mended, my coug liminished, the night sweats disappeared the expecteration lessened, and the Asthma was relieved so that I am now once nore able to breathe freely, and feel as though a weight was taken off my chest. BREACH OF PROMISE. A Wealthy Cilizen Sued by a Lady of Cincinnati for Failure to Perform the Marriage Contract-Amorous Correspondence-The Gradations of Affection and Estrangement.

(From the Chicago Tr bune of Saturday.

A suit was recently commenced in the A suit was recently commenced in the Superior Court of this city, which promises in its developments to excite an interest beyond the ordinary current of legal matters. It probably inv lves some of the dollars of the accountated sum to the credit of the account of Mr. Elisha C. Sprague, a real estate dealer of this city, who, if his own statement be correct is

A FATAL RACE.

Trot Between Cooley and General Butler-The Driver of the Latter Killed.

The telegraph has told the result of the race between Butl r and Cooley at Chicago on Saturday, and of the murder of Butler's driver. From the Chicago Tribune we copy the particulars of the tragedy The result of the fourth heat, which was given to Butler, gave great dissatisfaction. The crowd pressed forward in front of the judges stand, and the most clam rous outcries were heard. Butler was loudly cheered, int the majority of the sportsmen on the ground, judging from the cries that were heard, seemed to bein favor f either giving the range to Cooker as making it. giving the race to Cooley, or making it a dead heat. Finally the tumnit subsided, and the track was cleared for the IIFTH FAT

Sprague, a real estate dealer of this city, who, if his own statement be correct, is worth, at the present value of property, about half a million. He is at least understood to be the owner of a lock of which, in the mo hof Ac at he was offered $22,000 yearly re tal.

The Sprague is charged with having made a promise of marriage with his has neglected to perform, and with he now release to acknowledge. He is brong to into court, perhaps, by a lettle strategy, but if he found guilly, a lettle strategy at lettle for the complain in a lady of Ciucinnati, Ohio, and the a ion is one of assemption, for breach of promise.

The lady was born in the city of Cacinnati, where she has resided with her parents to the prosent time. She has been during six years, preceding the allegel promise of marriage, a teacher in the Newport Seminary. The defendant was an oid friell of the family but his acquaintance with the daughter had a more quaintance with the daughter had a long to follow-like conduct. He called often to see her them, acknowledged himself as a milior and wrote her tend repistles, in which from "my query" he progressed to the form "my query" he progressed to the form "my query" he progressed to the crowd and the track was cleared for the worth and the last understood to be intended and the last under the drivers and the crowd divided into two parties, and the crowd divid dead upon the back track, and a scene of wild exertement ensued. Strange to say, it did not appear to be caused by the integrace of the drivers death, but by the disappointment at the unsatisfactory result of the centes! A decision was vociferor by demanded of the judges. They repeated the assertion that McKeeve, was killed, and aunounced that the decision would be pisponed, which only elicited huder calls in the part of the crowd fer an imme listed decision. The loss of a man was apparently nothing compared with the loss of a bet. "We have just up or money," they cried, "and w red elar do , and the crowl becan t to proceed when it was too dark to see, but it is enough answer to these to say that the rules of the Association are important on this point, that no race shall be postponed after the entries are made. The President of the Association, W. B. Howard, Est, was untring in his attention to the deceased, and anxious that nothing should be left undone that might aid in his recovery or comfort. A meeting of the Directors will be held this morning at eleven o'clock, at the Tremont House, to take action in the matter, and to offer a reward for the arrest and conviction of the assas-RILEY ARRESTED. The stement of liley was received by some as truth, while others doubted it and called out for his arrest, and some of the more violent ones were clamerous for vengeance. I'lley was taken into cu tody by Assistant Superintendent Nelson, who was on the ground at the time, and was brought to the Armory to be held till the facts in the case could be ascertained. M'KEAVER FOUND.

The driver of Butler was found by the searching party lying on the track, on the buck stretch about twenty rods from the half mile post, in an insensible condition his injuries there and he was therefore conveyed with all possible speed to the residence of Dr. J. was named William KcKcaver. He was about twenty-nine years old, born in New York, where he was brought up to the business of a butcher, which he followed till a few years ago, when he became enamored with the turf, and commenc I to handle horses. He came from New York with the horse "General Butler," as his chief carectaker, handling him at all the "events' which have recently come off in An examination of the patient showed that he had been struck on the left temple by some hard substance, which had fractured the skull extensively. No other mark was found on the person except a few skin scratches, such as would be sustained by coming in contact roughly with the ground. Dr. Gere extracted three pieces of the cranium, one piece about one inch by one and a quarter, and the others perhaps half an inch square each, the ulters all the time remaining insensible. A gentleman of Kalamazoo, Mich., who for the past year has been figuring quite extensively in financial affairs in the Sonth, has succeeded in obtaining a contract (in connection with two others) from Senor Romero, the Mexican Minister, to furnish arms and munitions of war to that belligerent republic or empire. The contract amounts to $714,000, and the gentleman alluded to will leave New York soon, with a steamer loaded with said-articles. The contract was perfected and the schedule made out in Chicago by the Mexican Minister and the parties last week.
